

Media Release

2008 College Graduate Kaylah Anne debuts on latest NfS

NfS 123 Track 18 End of the Ride | EP produced by Rod McCormack

2008 CMAA College Graduate is celebrating the release of her debut single recorded on the Central Coast with award winning producer Rod McCormack at the realm.

The Newcastle youngster one of 22 to attend this year's prestigious college of music in Tamworth wanted to develop her songwriting and pick up some stage performance tips.

'So I could put it into practice to formulate my own style' she says.

As part of the package Kaylah Anne got to live on campus at Calrossy in Tamworth and fine tune her craft under expert guidance from tutors Merelyn Carter Mike McClellan Jim Haynes and Travis Collins.

Fast pace by six months and leaving audiences wanting more at the Graduate Concert in January Kaylah Anne delivers her first single End of the Ride.

Check out www.myspace.com/kaylahannemusic for a track preview.

Rising star Kaylah Anne is building a strong reputation around the Newcastle and Hunter Valley area. A regular performer at many venues like Hexham Bowling Club, Kaylah has had outstanding success in the past 12 month with numerous talent quest wins, and in January 2008 graduated from the Australian College of Country Music.

Her original songs have already been played on Newcastle's 105.3 NEW FM, 100.9 Port Stephens FM, Tamworth's 100.5 FM and 2TM, but now Kaylah Anne is making another step up the ladder.

Her forthcoming EP has been produced by the award-winning Rod McCormack and the first single, written by Kaylah Anne, is a great introduction for Australia to this talented singer/songwriter. Pure country vocals and a strong hooky song make for an excellent entrée to the EP.

Profile NfS 123

To contact Kaylah Anne

Management

Mick Woods

E: mick@kaylahanne.com.au

M: 0408 115 012

W: www.myspace.com/kaylahannemusic

Publicist

Rhonda Sinclair blurb creative solutions 0438 902 413

E: blurbcs@bigpond.net.au